The fee-based revolution is global – at very different stages

FEE-BASED ASSETS AS % OF TOTAL MANAGED ASSETS

■ 2016 ■ 2022 ■ 2025 ■ 2030E

What's driving it

Regulation (MiFID II), technology lowering costs, demand for transparency, and fee compression forcing advisors to justify value through holistic services – not just investment selection.

The pricing reality

83% of advisors will charge <1% for $5M+ clients by 2026. Average UHNW fee: 66bps. Commission revenue: 23% and declining. The response: expand services (tax, estate, planning) without raising fees.

So what

The fee-based transition isn't just a pricing change – it's a structural shift in who the advisor is. From product seller to wealth architect. And regions at 15% fee-based (like LatAm) have 20 years of growth ahead.

Statistics refer to advisors who outsourced at least 20% of their assets to a third party vs. advisors who do not outsource investments. 757 financial advisors participated in the study, completing an online survey between September and October 2021. Participants included 581 advisors who outsource investment management and 176 who do not. All participating advisors are owners/principals/partners at firms in the independent broker-dealer, insurance, and independent RIA channels. All participants have the following characteristics: • 7+ years tenure as a financial advisor • Up to $500 million in total assets under management • At least 30% of total assets under management is fee-based business • At least

The opportunity cost of managing portfolios: what could you do with 200 hours?

Structuring your investment framework can help transform your practice by giving you back more than 200+ hours a year.¹

1. Cerulli Associates, "The Cerulli Report | U.S. Asset Allocation Model Portfolios 2022. The study reports that advisors using model portfolios can reduce investment management and admin from 51 to 40% of their time, and increase client-facing activities from 44 to 53% of their time. Time savings estimation assumes 10% time savings x a 45hr work week x 50 weeks per year = 225hrs saved

Advisors appreciate a steady hand

We surveyed financial advisors outsourcing to models during the COVID-19 crisis to see how they fared.

Models enabled advisors to weather the storm

Didn't panic and stayed the course amidst the selloff

Believe outsourcing to models stabilized their practice this year

...and capitalize on opportunities

Spent most or all of their excess time with clients and prospects

Won new business during the crisis

It's difficult to find the time to be a good portfolio manager AND a good advisor to your clients during volatile markets.

Source: BlackRock, Inc., 5/11/2020., based on responses from financial advisor model outsourcers to a 15-question survey conducted by BlackRock during the week of 5/4/2020. BlackRock collected responses from approximately 305 financial advisors across more than 10 independent and wire channel firms.

Monitor and communicate with discipline

Spending extra time where it matters most

Models can help scale your qualified accounts, freeing up time to spend on the taxable portfolios and alternative strategies that are the biggest focuses for larger clients.
